DEWAN DEVI Playway & Higher Secondary School

RAJPURA MANGOTRIAN, JAMMU

Prospectus

From the Chairman's Desk

Mr Subhash Suri

Dewan Devi Higher Secondary School, Rajpura Mangotrian is founded by my mother Smt. Dewan Devi. She had a cherished desire to come up with such an institution in which the children enter the gate with smiling faces, as if they have come to their choicest place and enjoy the stay as in the laps of lovely moms.

Here they are not to be imparted with bookish knowledge only. They have to be prepared for practical life by becoming fit and best personalities in the times to come. They should become the excellent brand ambassadors of typical Indian society. They should bloom in variety of situations and circumstances as every shining fragrant flowers. They should be physically and mentally alert to come up as gems in the world representing as Indian citizens with reflection of peculiar eastern culture.

They should be groomed up in such a way that they may be fit in all the fields of life.

With these values in mind we have created an appropriate scenario by providing highly, qualified and trained staff and best possible infrastructure. Our past output have justified our goals and destination and have been spectacular throughout. We wish that this institution shall flourish by leaps and bounds.
